Tan Collection

Design by Tanju Özelgin

Combining comfort with elegance and splendour.

Tan was designed with inspiration from mythology and nature, underlining comfort, quality, casualness. Colour and material choices can easily reflect desired effects in usage space, while seamlessly blending with interior design.

Reflecting your institution's and your own personality with its spectacular and characteristic appearance, Tan is an ideal choice for executive offices, homes, meeting halls, and waiting rooms alike. Single, double, and triple sofa choices of Tan make it very easy to configure spaces large and small.

Providing comfort levels beyond expectations, Tan Mini also establishes an elegant and modern effect in meeting halls.

Goose feather cushions of Tan create an alluring and comfortable seating space, while also providing support for upright sitting position.

Unusually slim legs of Tan provide an elegant look, while timeless design and colour choices of the collection helps blend with different accessories and interior designs.
